Step 2: design your nature trail. Draw a map of the trail to help your family find their way round it. Mark on it the things they need to look out for, such as a fallen tree, a patch of wild flowers, or a bridge over a winding stream. You could even add some fun facts about the things they'll see along the way.

Red Pine Tree (Pinus resinosa) The red pine is a native North American tree species sometimes erroneously called the "Norway pine". Its natural range is around the upper Great Lakes through southern Canada west to Manitoba. It can be found further south in the United States (as in eastern West Virginia) on high mountainous ridges.
